Rodrigo Vairinhos's Corky Lips rocking chair smacks of sensuality. This earth-friendly find, made of recyclable polyurethane foam covered in a faux leather made from cork, is manufactured with almost no waste. Dimensions are 20 inches wide by 31 high by 31 deep. 17 Hullbergweg, 58454 Witten, Germany; 49-2302-699775; neo-studios.de. circle 308

Teragren Fine Bamboo Flooring, Panels & Veneer

Bamboo strands fused with a phenol-based adhesive form durable Teragren Synergy wide-plank floating flooring, ideal for high-traffic areas. Coated with a water-based, solvent-free finish and offered in java, wheat, chestnut, and brindle, the product earns LEED credit. 12715 Miller Road NE, Suite 301, Bainbridge Island, WA 98110; 800-929-6333; teragren.com. circle 310

Maria Y

This designer constructs her BambooTimbre Car media cabinet from bamboo that's flattened, layered, bonded. Then she applies one of four finishes: espresso, toffee, wheat, and Kona. The piece measures 47 inches wide by 24 high by 22 deep. 298 Harvey West Boulevard, Santa Cruz, CA 95060; 831-457-2222; mariayee.com. circle 309

Farm

For the handmade pieces in his Flute collection, this young collective's member Giles Miller uses both recycled cardboard and cardboard manufactured with wood sourced from sustainably managed forests in Sweden. The floor lamp has a powder-coated steel armature. The side table can support up to 10 pounds. 8 Fairfield Road, London E3 2QB, U.K.; 44-7780-924689; farmdesigns.co.uk. circle 311
