Proud as a peacock

design by Rodrigo Vairinhos

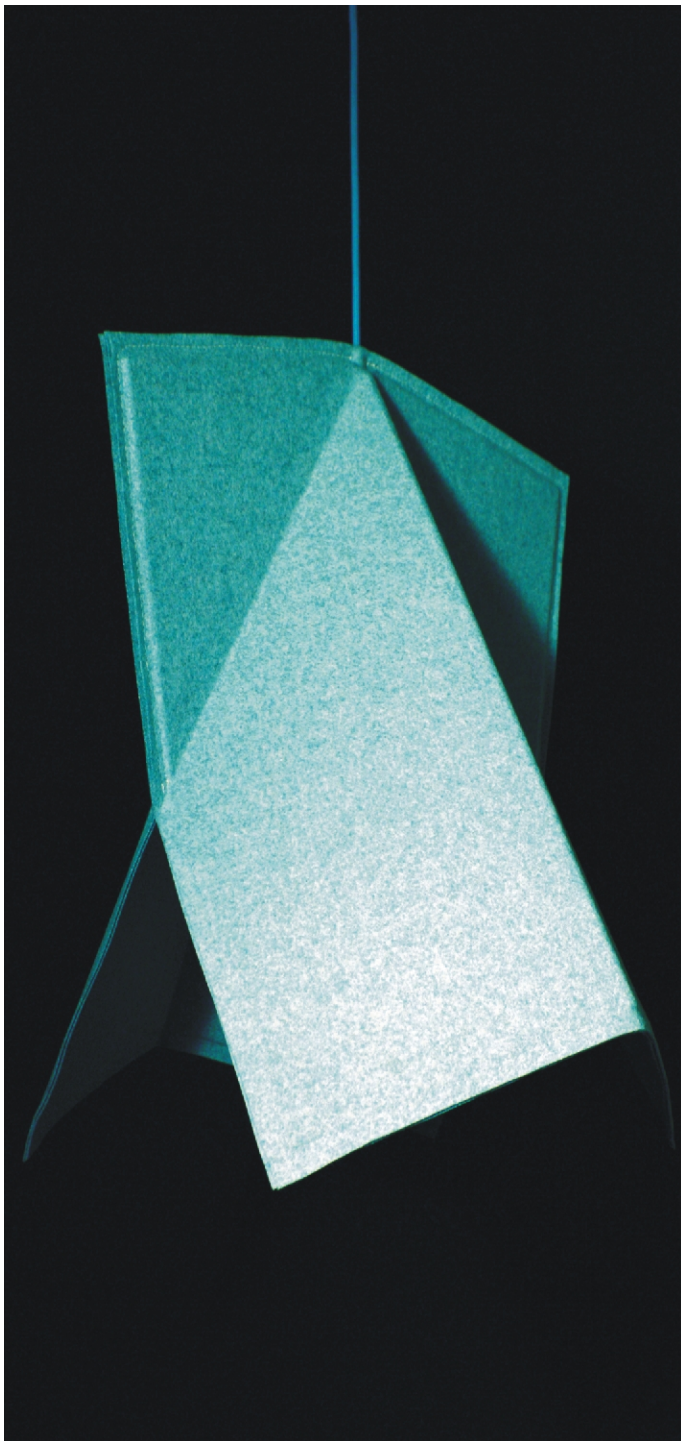

Vanity comes from a world of fantasy, a world of abstract flying creatures.

Vanity took definitely inspiration on paper light origami birdlife and it was meant to be a proud strange bird that brings a dynamic life to light.

This “species” design characteristic is its emphasised spikiness and its sleek surfaces like an homage to the proud spread of a bird's wings.

An individual world of light was created, clean and contemporary, a certain sensual experience was meant by combining sharp edges with the touch of rich soft fabric and light.

Far beyond a decorative product, Vanity is a multi-talent and acoustic was also an important subject that the designer had in mind, giving to its design sound absorbing properties, because when the acoustics of a room are well-balanced, the room's atmosphere is even more pleasant.

Vanity is a memorable lighting experience made to satisfy and improve everyday needs and senses. Imagine theatrical schemes, cosy spaces, chic and elegant settings full of character.
