What if a cowhide
is not a cowhide?

design by Rodrigo Vairinhos

Made of an alternative material to the traditional cowhide rugs, Vairinhos created a cowhide-shaped carpet for the conscious, but not only, vegan lifestyle.

VEGAN, design by Rodrigo Vairinhos

With a captivating design and mimicking the shape of a cowhide (but without harming any animal) the designer made use of cork leather, a non-animal product, from vegetable origin, ecological and renewable.

This carpet owes a fresh new look and serves many purposes. It's for sure a beautiful highlight in any contemporary setting, turning a floor space into a stylish surface, increasing overall comfort and providing extra insulation.

VEGAN, design by Rodrigo Vairinhos

With the warmth of the cork material beneath your feet and unlike real cowhides this one is hypo-allergenic, easy to clean and can be ironed.

VEGAN is an exciting product not only for the conscious nature-eco-lovers.
